

Protection of Jurors' Employment

Title 28, United States Code, Section 1875:

- A. No employer shall discharge, threaten to discharge, intimidate, or coerce any permanent employee by reason of such employee's jury service, or the attendance or scheduled attendance in connection with such service, in any court of the United States.
- B. Any employer who violates the provisions of this section:
 - shall be liable for damages for any loss of wages or other benefits suffered by an employee by reason of such violation;
 - may be enjoined from further violation of this section and ordered to provide other appropriate relief, including but not limited to the reinstatement of any employee discharged by reason of his jury service; and
 - shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $5,000 for each violation as to each employee, and may be ordered to perform community service.

Payments

You will receive an attendance fee of $50.00 per day plus round trip mileage at the rate approved by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. Parking fees, public transportation, and tolls are fully reimbursed. Juror checks are issued weekly. Jurors residing more than 70 miles from the courthouse may request overnight accommodations. Information on overnight travel is posted on our website under the Jury Info tab.

Weather Related Cancellations

If court is canceled due to inclement weather, you will be contacted by phone or email. You can also check for cancellations by calling 1-855-895-2472 for updated reporting instructions. If court is open and you are unable to safely travel, call the Jury Office at (866) 213-5879.

Electronic Mail Disclaimer

U.S. Government computer equipment is intended for communication, transmission, and storage of official U.S. Government or other authorized information only. Internet email traffic is subject to inspection by a variety of persons and mechanisms, authorized and otherwise. Users should not expect the messages they send or receive via the internet to be private. Delivery and delivery times are not guaranteed. Some messages may not be deliverable although the message was correctly addressed. Receipt or non-receipt can only be confirmed through other positive means, not by inference or assumption. Transmission of any material other than text is strictly prohibited.

Attendance Obligations

Title 28, United States Code, Section 1866(g): "Any person summoned for jury service who fails to appear as directed may be ordered by the district court to appear forthwith and show cause for failure to comply with the summons. Any person who fails to show good cause for noncompliance with a summons may be fined not more than $1,000, imprisoned not more than three days, ordered to perform community service, or any combination thereof."

Notice Regarding Identity Theft

The Federal District Court will never request personal identification information be sent directly in an email response, or over the telephone. If you have questions regarding a phone call or email you receive, please call the Jury Office.

Contact Us

U.S. District Court
100 South Clinton Street
P.O. Box 7367
Syracuse, NY 13261-7367
email: jury@nynd.uscourts.gov
fax: (315) 234-8501
phone: (866) 213-JURY (5879) (toll-free)

jury duty
You be the judge

U.S. District Court
Northern District of New York
www.nynd.uscourts.gov

"I consider trial by jury as the only anchor yet imagined by man, by which a government can be held to the principles of its constitution."
- Thomas Jefferson

How long is my jury term?

You are summoned for a one month “call-in” term of jury service. Your term begins on the date printed on your summons and concludes on the 1st Thursday of the following month. If you are selected to report, you will serve for one day, or for the duration of one trial (typically two to five days). Following your appearance, you will be excused from the remainder of the jury term. If you are serving on a trial that exceeds the service period, you will be required to serve until the completion of the trial.

How will I know when to report?

You must check your reporting status by phone or internet after 6:00 PM each Thursday. The message each Thursday will provide you with your reporting instructions for the following week. You may check your status by:

PHONE:

- 1.) Dial 1 (855) 895-2472 using a touch-tone phone
- 2.) Press 1
- 3.) Enter your 9-digit participant number
- 4.) Press 1 to verify the first 3 letters of your last name, then listen to the entire message

INTERNET:

- 1.) Go to www.nynd.uscourts.gov
- 2.) Click the eJuror link on the left of the home page
- 3.) Log into eJuror
- 4.) Click the Current Status option

TEXT (if enrolled):

- 1.) Text the word STATUS to 1 (833) 949-2699

To enroll in text messaging, log into eJUROR and turn on text notifications on the Personal Information Page.

When you are scheduled to report, the court will attempt to contact you by phone and/or email to remind you of your reporting date. Please do not rely solely on this communication. You are responsible to check your weekly reporting instructions every Thursday after 6:00 PM as directed above.

What if I've moved?

The Northern District covers thirty-two counties of New York with five jury divisions:

- Albany: Albany, Columbia, Fulton, Greene, Montgomery, Rensselaer, Saratoga, Schenectady, Schoharie, Ulster, Washington, Warren.
- Binghamton: Broome, Chenango, Delaware, Tioga, Tompkins.
- Syracuse: Cayuga, Cortland, Jefferson, Madison, Onondaga, Oswego.
- Utica: Hamilton, Herkimer, Lewis, Oneida, Otsego.
- Plattsburgh: Clinton, Essex, Franklin, St. Lawrence.

If you have moved outside the summons area, you will be disqualified from this jury service. Please list your new address (including your county) on your juror form and return it. You may also update your address through our eJUROR website: www.nynd.uscourts.gov.

If you are residing temporarily away from your residence, please indicate the date that you plan to return to New York State. Your jury service will be deferred.

College students: If you are currently enrolled as a full time student, please notify the court of your expected date of graduation. Your service will be deferred. A family member may complete the form on your behalf.

What if I have a doctor's appointment or a planned vacation?

The court has some flexibility to work around scheduling conflicts during your jury term. If you have a date conflict, you may submit your partial excuse request by:

- calling the jury office at 1-866-213-5879 (press 1);
- including your dates on the back of your Juror Form;
- applying online through the eJuror tool.

Requests for time off will not be considered after you have been scheduled to report. Requests for time off must be submitted by 5PM each Wednesday for the following week. It is possible to be seated on a trial that may extend beyond the end of your term. To avoid conflicts, notify the jury staff of any scheduling conflicts that fall in the week AFTER your term, as well as dates that fall within it.

What can I expect when I report?

When you arrive, you will be checked in by the jury staff. You will be required to provide a valid photo identification and your summons. A brief orientation will be provided before you proceed to the courtroom for selection. Jury selection typically lasts a few hours. If you are selected as a juror, please expect to remain until 5:00 p.m. Otherwise, you will be released for the day upon completion of jury selection. Generally the court will be in session from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. The dress code is business casual.

The court normally takes an hour for lunch and several short breaks throughout the day. Complimentary snacks and beverages will be provided. You can bring your lunch with you, or purchase it at your discretion.

What should I bring with me?

A government issued ID is required to enter the federal building. Firearms, pocket knives and other weapons are prohibited. All visitors are required to pass through a metal detector. Use of cell phones, tablets, laptops, and other electronic devices is at the discretion of the presiding trial judge. You may be asked to leave your device at the Security Screening Station.

Where do I park?

Detailed parking instructions and driving directions are enclosed. Limited disabled parking is available. Please contact the Jury Office for more information.

What if I've already served?

This is a federal court summons. The exemption period for prior service is two years. To claim this exemption, proof of prior attendance at the state/county level is required. To obtain proof of your state court service, contact your county's Jury Office. For contact information visit: www.nyjuror.gov. Fax your proof to (315) 234-8501 or email it to jury@nynd.uscourts.gov.